

*In a Fallen World, FIND REFUGE UNDER GOD'S WINGS
*and SOAR with Jesus!

Wake up each morning, literally and spiritually, & thank God for another day -even before you open your eyes.
Wisely place your wants, worry & weight on Jesus, trusting that His love and power are at work. God's will be done!

W Wonder with anticipation...will this be the day Jesus returns for his bride?! Or is this the day you will return to Him?
What would really matter then? Wait on Him to help you prioritize & give you daily direction (say no, to say yes).

Worship The Lord all throughout the day with a heart of gratitude, awe & praise. He is worthy! Enjoy His vast creation & marvel at his abilities and ways. Walk in joy, prayer & thanksgiving - this is His will for you each day.

Ingest God's words through Bible study, meditation & memorization; an investment to increasingly know Him more intimately. Inside out transformation will occur as you renew your mind & trust His plans and insight.

I Invite The Lord into your internal conversations & inevitable challenges because He cares & you are inseparable.
Invoke His peace, protection & intervention, to help you love & intercede for those with issues & ill intentions.

Interact with people based on Jesus' love & truth. Keep in mind that we are all God's creation made in His image which gives us inherent worth. Understand that the real battle is not against flesh & blood but invisible beings of evil.

Navigate your day with the counsel, comfort, conviction & capability of the Holy Spirit who lives inside all believers.
God will meet your physical, emotional & spiritual NEEDS as you ask for HIS provision & perspective.

N Never listen to the lies of the enemy which tear you down, & tempt you to settle for less than God's best. Instead, walk the Narrow Road in the new identity, nature & life that Jesus gives. He heals our hearts & frees us from sin.

Nurture your relationships & look to the needs & interests of others. We have limited time before we reach eternity & nothing matters without love. A necessity of right relationship is reciprocating undeserved forgiveness.

Grow in faith, & holy living. Grab tightly to the truth that salvation is a gift from God that is not deserved or earned.
Motivated by His love & mercy, make it your goal to glorify Jesus in your thoughts, words & actions.

G Give God your best resources (time, talent, treasure), considering that all of our abilities and possessions originate from Him. Store up treasure in heaven instead of going after fleeting glory & gain. Get rid of false religion & idols in your life.

Gather with other believers regularly, utilizing and appreciating everyone's giftings. Pray for & encourage each other daily. Give & receive grace, bearing with one another in love & humility.

Serve The Lord & help others in both ordinary and special ways, as the Holy Spirit reveals your Eph. 2:10 deeds. Offer your body as a living sacrifice, just as Christ gave his life for you. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, produce fruit.

S Share the gospel with the sensitivity of the Holy Spirit as you support Jesus' mission to seek & save the lost. Suffer well.
Simultaneously be discipled & disciple others since believers are justified, but in the sanctification process until eternity.

Seek God. Submit to the loving lordship of Jesus every minute. Show mercy to those who don't deserve it. Confess & turn from sin -be a slave of righteousness instead. Until we see our savior face to face, fight the good fight to the end!
